

Simultaneous Fork Positioners

Forklift Truck Load Protectors eliminate costly marring, scuffing, chipping and scratching by way of providing a padded non-slip surface between product and steel tine. These accessories are molded from premium polyurethane in accordance with OEM conditions. It is very fast to set up the Load Protectors since they fit right above the standard lift truck tines utilizing mounting hardware.